REPORT OF MARLBORO FIRE DEPARTMENT

December 30, 1958

The Marlboro Fire Department answered 12 still alarms and 2 general alarms, Raymond Beauregard and the State Barn.

We received help from Mutual Aid at both of these fires.

We have found our Two-Way Radios have been a great help in making our department more efficient.

The way Mutual Aid has answered our calls for help and has stood by at our Station in case of emergency has also been gratifying to us.

The Firewards want to extend their appreciation to the Marlboro Police Department for all the fine help they have given us and also want to thank the people of Marlboro for their fine cooperation.

We have in our station 2 pumpers, a 1949 3-ton Dodge with a three-stage 600-gallon pump, a 1937 1½-ton Ford with a single-stage 500-gallon pump. We also have a 1940 1-ton Chevrolet truck carrying 2 forest fire pumps and equipment. All of these trucks have Two-Way Radios.

LEROY P. DERBY,
PAUL LAURENDEAU,
CHESTER NASON,
LLOYD O. FRECHETTE,

Firewards.

REPORT OF RECREATION COMMISSION

The summer program, under the able direction of Mr. Charles Hamel, assisted by Mrs. Audrey Harris, enjoyed a lively six weeks program. The committee considers the money well spent.

The base ball field was cleaned of rubbish and stones during the spring, a fence was erected on two sides of the black top area to protect the ball players, benches were put on both sides of the fence for the ball players and skaters. The black top was not sealed this year as the Road Agent did not have use for enough of the sealing material to do the work, it will be sealed this summer and the baskets erected. The Committee still has hopes of moving the summer playground to the ball field when the necessary money is available for toilet installations.

The Hallowe'en parade and entertainment was well attended with more of the youngsters participating in costumes and enjoying the ride on the fire trucks. The School classes vied for prizes with their well prepared floats which the spectators enjoyed. The committee hopes that more of the businesses, organizations and Town groups will prepare and enter floats in the parade. Our sincere thanks to the judges and to the Fire Department for the use of the fire trucks and to the men for their help during the parade and at the school. The activities after the parade were held at the school gym this year, featuring movies, refreshments and dancing to the music of Reeds orchestra, through courtesy of the Musicians Union.

The skating rink was flooded early this year and the weather was on our side, skating was enjoyed from December first. Again, our thanks to the Fire Department and men for their help in keeping the ice smooth.

The committee wishes to express its thanks to the Student Council, the organizations and Townspeople that have helped us make the program a success, and hope that we may improve and expand when the opportunity arises.

FRANK T. ROBINSON,
Commissioners of Recreation.

Another idea which has come to the fore this past year with regard to recreation in the town is a swimmnig pool. A group of citizens have looked into the location and feasibility of a pool, with emphasis on water supply, ownership of the land, and possibility of gov't. agencies supplying tests, advice, etc. It is generally agreed that a swimming pool is a most desirable project.

A Citizens Committee.

MARLBORO PLAYGROUND

Opening day of the summer program found approximately 80 children registering for the activities. The ages ranged from the pre-school group up to and including the high school group. With the great range of age groups the program centered around group activities. Included in some of these activities were volleyball, baseball, and children's games.

The morning program featured the more active program with an occasional trip to the athletic field for baseball and the weekly swimming program at Harrisville Public Beach for the older children. I was most ably assisted by Mrs. Audrey Harris, who conducted group games for the younger children. Some of the activities included up to 25-30 children of the four to seven age group.

A week-long contest in a particular activity was held and on Friday a winner was named. Some of the activities included were horseshoes, badminton, cribbage, checkers, and basketball free throws. The last day of the program contests were held in running and skill events and prizes awarded for outstanding participants.

Average attendance 30.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES E. HAMEL, JR.,

Director.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FROST FREE LIBRARY

To the president and trustees of the Frost Free Library. The librarian submits the following report for the year, October 1, 1957 to October 1, 1958.

The library was open 149 days.

The total circulation of books and periodicals was 6457. Of this number 2465 were juvenile fiction, 316 juvenile non-fiction, 1563 were adult fiction, 475 adult non-fiction. Circulation of periodicals and pamphlets was 1638. Forty-three non-fiction books were borrowed from the State Library for students and teachers.

The usefulness of our library should not be judged by circulation figures for of equal importance is the information asked for and found in our library or secured from State Library.

We have borrowed over 600 books from the State Bookmobile this past year. The bookmobile visits our library every eight weeks.

There were 148 new books purchased this year. There have been many books given by generous patrons of the library. The outstanding purchases in non-fiction were:

Picture History of Painting by H. W. and Dora Janson.
Flower Arranging, Better Homes and Gardens

Three Hundred Years of American Painting by Alexander Eliot, pub. by Time Incorp.

The library has observed the holidays during the year with special displays of books and posters. The outstanding event of the year was the celebration of the first NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK held March 16th to the 22nd. Mrs. Elizabeth Richards, our local chairman and her committee did a fine job with special exhibits of books and posters in the Legion Hall windows informing the towns people the services of our library. Notices were sent home by each child from school explaining the purpose and activities of the week. Local organizations were contacted and asked to announce the observance of National Library Week, inviting all to visit our library. The week proved to be a busy one. Many people visited our library and couldn't resist the temptation to take a book. The special display of books borrowed from the State Library were enjoyed by all who browsed through them.

National Wild Life Week was also observed the same Week, Posters drawn by the fifth grade children symbolizing preservation of wild life and our forests were on display. The posters were drawn under the supervision of the art teacher, Mrs. Scott.

As librarian I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Marjorie Wright, Mrs. Corinne Bennett, Miss Eleanor Labrie, Mrs. Mabel Page and Mrs. Ona Lane for their assistance in making NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK so successful for our library.

Mrs. Ona Lane, my assistant has been most cooperative and amiable to work with.

Mr. Nash, our janitor has been encumbered with a faulty heating plant the past few years. We wish to express out heartfelt appreciation for his untiring efforts in trying to keep our library comfortably warm.

We hope to include in our program of activities for the coming year a story hour for the children.

It has been said that New Hampshire libraries are too often regarded as Cinderellas, to be relegated to chimney-corners of municipal kitchens, there to await the coming of a fairy god-mother or a golden prince. If endowments, bequests or gifts are not available, trustees in many communities seem to believe that rather than request municipal funds for enlargement or renovation, the public library should remain a lowly and neglected municipal step-child. This is not true in our town I'm proud to say. Patrons as well as the staff have enjoyed the improvements which have been made to the library the past three years.

Respectfully submitted,

CORINNE NASH, Librarian.

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER

There have been no serious epidemics of contagious disease in the past year.

All cases involving sanitation have been investigated, and although there has not in every case been a satisfactory solution due to Marlboro's existing sewerage situation, the Selectmen are aware of these problems.

I would like to urge that all adults as well as children receive three polio shots, as this disease is by no means limited to the younger age groups.

Respectfully submitted,

PERCY C. McINTIRE, M.D.

Health Officer.

Clothing has been distributed where a need has been called to my attention. I wish to thank those who have left such a good assortment of small childrens clothing with me. I hope if anyone knows of a need of such clothing they will contact the nurse. She might have the right sizes to help out.

At school 270 pupils were examined by the School Doctor. Defects found are listed below:

Mouth breathing—7

Enlarged tonsils—12

Impacted or excess of wax in ears—8

Dental cavaties—34

Heart murmurs—7

Scarring of ear drum—1

Nurse examinations include:

Height and weights—346—defects found

Hearing tests—274—6 notices sent

Eye screening tests—346—65 notices sent

Heads examined for pediculosis or ringworm—163—

These are reports for the current school year.

Several children have been transported home because of illness. Working parents please make plans for care of your child should he or she become ill at school!

3 children have been taken for medical help because of accidents at school.

1 case of Scarlet Fever has been reported to me.

At pre-school clinic in June, 21 children attended. There they met their school Dr., their teacher and school nurse, and became acquainted with our eye and ear screening machines. No outstanding medical defects were noted in this group. My thanks to Dr. McIntire and the nurses who assisted at this clinic.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MARGARET A. FORD, R.N.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF MARLBORO SCHOOLS

Dr. Charles L. Bowlby, Supt. of Schools
Marlboro, New Hampshire

My annual report is attached for your consideration and publication if you wish. As usual I have tried to make the report as current as possible and rather than having it coincide with the fiscal year, I have covered the one year period since the last report submitted on January 31, 1958. I shall attempt to comply with requests and make this report much briefer than in past years.

Enrollment of Pupils

I think a report on the enrollment is necessary in order to get a basic picture of the school. You will notice that there has been no tremendous change in totals but the trend is indicated. We have had an increase in the number of tuition pupils due mainly to the greater number attending our high school from neighboring towns. We now have a total of 31 tuition pupils.

Only inconsequential changes have occurred in these numbers since September.

STAFF

Only a few changes were necessary in our staff. Miss Frances Perrin, teacher of grade four, resigned to get married and Mr. John Burnham, sixth grade teacher, resigned to accept a position in a nearby city system. Mrs. Burnham became the new teacher in grade four and Mr. John Couture, a 1958 graduate of Keene Teachers College, is now teaching grade five with Mrs. Hastings having moved from there to grade six. Shortly after school began, the school board agreed to hire a part-time teacher to assist with grade one when there were forty pupils enrolled. Mrs. Marie Forcier was obtained to teach part of each session in that area thereby increasing the educational opportunity of those children.

In the upper grades Mrs. Ann Gaseau resigned from the Commercial Department and her place is being taken by Miss Ann Boucher a graduate of Plymouth Teachers College. Mr. Fred Norris who previously taught in Hampstead has been added to the staff and is teaching Science and Mathematics. All of the new staff members are capably performing their duties.

There have been no changes in the areas of special teachers, custodians or lunch room personnel.

PUPIL SUCCESS

It seems that something always needs to be said regarding the performance of our pupils. It is difficult to do this year after year and not repeat what has been said before. In general our pupils are doing work that ranges from excellent to acceptable. There are a few pupils whose work is of poor quality and in most of these instances the pupil has the ability necessary to improve it. I wish to point out however, that the school can do only so much for such pupils. These boys and girls must be encouraged and disciplined in the home to increase their efforts.

As stated in my last report, standards in post-secondary institutions are being pushed up and the high school graduate who hopes to get advanced training must be ready to meet these new demands upon his record. We realize that it is our job to enable him to become thus prepared and consequently we must hold to rigid standards. Doing more work and doing it better than ever before calls for increased output by all concerned including the students.

Many parents come to school for conferences for various reasons during a year. This is usually very worthwhile and it would be helpful if more of them came. One point often discussed is the problem of homework. This point has been made in my reports before but it is more important now than ever before that our students do work outside of school. In fact if we are going to approach the standards set for us and get our students prepared to meet what they will face in post secondary institutions we must teach more material and teach it so it will be retained. This obviously calls for more effort on the part of the student. There should be no doubt in the minds of any parents about homework. Any student who is enrolled in a normal program of four or more units is not doing justice to his program unless he is studying outside of school hours. The amount needed will vary depending upon the student's ability and the content of his program but it should probably not get below ten hours per week in any case.

ATTENDANCE

We have no serious attendance problems. In general our students have excellent records. Most of our absences occur among about ten per cent of the enrollment. I believe that some of it would be eliminated if the parents gave more thought to the extent to which one day's absence per week handicaps a pupil. In many instances a single day's absence has an immediate bearing upon the quality of at least three days' school work. Every effort is made by the staff to help pupils make up work missed but the records indicate that absence is a very definite contributor to low marks.

PLANT AND FACILITIES

The buildings are being maintained in good condition. The new building has served us well and is meeting expectations. It has been extensively used by our groups in an ever expanding regular and extracurricular program. Several non-student groups have also used the facilities for a variety of purposes. All areas of both buildings are in use practically every period of the day with the exception of one room in the elementary building.

REVIEW OF LUNCH PROGRAM

Our lunch program has continued to operate with no advance in prices for several years. It gets more and more difficult to keep this a self-supporting proposition. In fact at the present time we face an early deficit. We must advance prices of the meals or ask for district support soon.

Statement of operation from Sept. 1, 1957 to June 30, 1958:

Income from sales of lunches & USDA reimbursement		$7,549 74
Aid from District		100 00
Miscellaneous (Adult lunches, etc.)		193 65
Total income		<hr/> $7,843 39
Expended for food		$5,421 42
Expended for labor		2,398 00
Other expenses (Express, gas, napkins, straws)		227 37
		<hr/> $8,046 79

This shows a net loss on the year's operation of $203.40. Compared to knowledge I have of other similar programs, our program comes much closer to being self-supporting than many are.

GRADUATION

The eighteen members of the Class of 1958 became the first students to receive diplomas in the new auditorium. Graduation exercises concluded a busy week of Commencement activities. Ten of the eighteen members enrolled for higher education. During the same week twenty-eight eighth graders took part in promotion exercises and were ready to begin their high school careers.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR PROGRAM

In an attempt to comply with requests and reduce the length of this I am omitting a detailed account of this phase of the program. Many student groups work on projects, each under the sponsorship of a teacher. We try to operate a well rounded program of social activity, keeping in mind that pupils learn through these experiences. Our physical education and athletic groups are being well handled and good results are being obtained.

CONCLUSION

I feel that our program has been constantly improved and can see several ways to make further improvement. Our progress in this direction has cost money and further progress will cost more money. It seems to me that we must face the fact that we are caught in a general upgrading of educational standards and we must attempt to keep pace. Increased size of classes both at the primary level and in the high school area make it necessary to add to our staff. I have faith that our people will support any reasonable requests as long as results of our program continue to show that the needs of the pupils are being met.

Respectfully submitted,

IRVIN H. GORDON,
Principal.
